- Wish List -

There are many ingredients to a successful auction, and one the most critical is outstanding, sought-after items that will attract a bidding frenzy among guests. The Ball Committee has a wealth of experience in knowing which items bidders clamor for and they have compiled a "wish list" for the 2010 Ball. Many individuals and companies graciously donate items to the live and the silent auction and they often ask us what they should give. We hope this year's list inspires you...
