Address Section

Address Definition

- a. A way to accurately pinpoint the physical location of a particular piece of property.

Address Application

- a. The address is broken down to individual components: street number, street direction, street name, street type, and street direction suffix, city, state, and zip code and, if applicable, building unit number.

Agent Owned Section

Agent Owned Definition

- a. The property for sale is owned by a licensed agent.

Agent Owned Application

- a. Note the agent's license number on the contract.
- b. If owner of property is a real estate agent, it must be disclosed to the buyer. Buyer needs to know that owner's level of expertise is higher than the average seller.

Agent Remarks Section

Agent to Agent Remarks Definition

- a. Comments from listing agent to buyer's agent regarding listed property.

Agent to Agent Remarks Application

- b. These comments are not seen by the public, only viewable to agents.
- c. Use this area to relay helpful information to the buyer's agent.
- d. Include exclusions, commission and/or disclosures.
- e. Include information to help with showings.
- f. Also see BAC (Buyer Agent Commission) section for more information.
- g. Due to liability concerns, do not include any access codes, i.e., lockbox, gate, etc.

Area Section

Area Definition

- a. Assigned number for county and township of property's physical location
- b. Listings must be entered in the area number in which they are physically located and are assessed taxes, regardless of the mailing address (including city) assigned to the property by the Post Office.

BLC[®] Field Guide

Area Application

- a. Locate property on MIBOR service area map to determine area of property's physical location.
 - i. Maps are available in REALTOR[®] Store.

CDOM (Comprehensive Days on Market) Section

CDOM Definition

- a. The cumulative number of days a property shows as an "active" status within a sales cycle. In the case of an Office Exclusive Listing, CDOM begins on the effective date of the listing contract, if later submitted to service as an active listing.
- b. CDOM is based on the Tax ID number. CDOM calculation starts over from zero for any new listing added for the property after the previous property listing has been "Off- Market" for a period of more than 90 days.

CDOM Application

- a. CDOM will continue to calculate if an agent/firm has a property listed and it becomes "Off Market" and the property is relisted, either by the same agent/firm or by another agent/firm, within 90 days of being "Off Market".
- b. Once a listing has been off market for 90 days, when re-entered on the 91st day, CDOM will reset and begin calculating again at one (1).
- c. For CDOM purposes, off-market statuses are: Leased, Sold, Expired, or Temporarily Off Market.
- d. CDOM will be postponed and continue where it left for properties that have been Withdrawn as these listings are still under an effective listing contract.

Code of Ethics Section

Issues related to the Code of Ethics and its enforcement are handled by the Professional Services & Industry Issues Department. For assistance, contact Tracy Nierste (317-956-5244 or tracynierste@mibor.com), or Jeanette Langford (317-956-5241 or jeanettelangford@mibor.com).

Listing Type Section

Listing Type Definition

- a. Exclusive Right to Sell: Listing Agent (Broker) will represent sellers and earn a commission regardless who sells the house. The Buyer Agent Commission (BAC) field is an offer of compensation to the Participant (Broker) of the buyer’s agent who represents the buyer and is the procuring cause of the sale. A commission split is stated by a percentage of the gross sale price or dollar amount in Buyer Agent Commission (BAC) field.
- b. Exclusive Agency: Listing Agent (Broker) has the right to market and sell the property and the seller also retains the right to sell the property. If the seller sells the property to a buyer that was not introduced to the property by the listing agent, no commission will be paid to the listing agent. If the listing agent sells the property, a commission will be paid to the listing agent.
- c. Exclusive Right to Sell - Exclusions: Similar to Exclusive Right to Sell, but an exclusion has been added that omits a certain buyer or buyers from the listing contract. If one of these buyers purchases the property within the timeframe and parameters of the exclusion, then the listing agent will not be paid a commission.
- d. One Party: Obligates the seller to pay a broker’s commission only if he/she sells the home to a buyer who has been brought to him/her by that broker. One-Party Listings are generally used in situations where a seller is attempting to sell their home without the assistance of a real estate broker. Such sellers are known in the industry by the acronym, “FSBO” or “For Sale by Owner.”
