MIBOR Establishes 2014 Leadership Team

New board and officers will guide membership, promote mission

INDIANAPOLIS — The Metropolitan Indianapolis Board of REALTORS® (MIBOR) today announced its new board members and officers for 2014.

The four newest board members began three-year terms Jan. 1, and will be part of the 15-member board that directs the activities of the nearly 6,500 MIBOR members and affiliate members in 10 central Indiana counties.

The new board members include:

Jean Donica – Real Estate Professionals, Columbus
Julie Downey – Keller Williams Indy Metro North, Carmel
Julia Evinger – Century 21 Scheetz, Carmel
Jason Tillema – Nick A. Tillema and Associates, Indianapolis

In addition, MIBOR has appointed new leadership.

MIBOR's 2014 officers are:

Janet Jernigan, President – Platinum Realty Group, Carmel
Kathy Hall, President-Elect – Prudential Indiana Realty Group, Greenfield
Roger Lundy, Secretary/Treasurer – Keller Williams Indy Metro North, Carmel
Jason O'Neil, Secretary/Treasurer-Elect – Encore Sotheby's International, Indianapolis

"The housing market is well positioned for 2014," said Janet Jernigan, 2014 MIBOR president. "Building on the stable market in 2013, I look forward to a year full of positive growth for buyers and sellers and the communities REALTORS® serve."

The new board and officers will help to steward the region's economic development efforts and continue working to foster a healthy marketplace to meet central Indiana's housing needs.

MIBOR's 2014 officers were presented to the association at the annual Ball on Jan. 18.

This information has been provided by MIBOR, the professional association representing central Indiana's REALTORS®.
