

April 21, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

REALTORS® endorses candidate for Hancock County primary election

INDIANAPOLIS – Today, the Metropolitan Indianapolis Board of REALTORS® Political Action Committee (MPAC) announced its endorsement of Bill Bolander for the upcoming primary election in Hancock County. Bolander is running for Hancock County Council District 4.

“We’re pleased to support Bill Bolander for Hancock County Council District 4 seat,” said RPAC Chairman Peter Pizarro. “His values and interests align with those of the Metropolitan Indianapolis Board of REALTORS®, which is to enhance and preserve quality of life and property values in our communities.”

MIBOR is a professional trade association serving the needs of nearly 6,500 REALTORS® and affiliate members in 10 central Indiana counties, including Boone, Brown, Hamilton, Hancock, Hendricks, Johnson, Marion, Montgomery, Morgan and Shelby counties. MIBOR formed its political action committee to achieve one of its core interests – helping to elect and work alongside local elected officials to ensure the continued quality of life in each community.

MPAC endorsement decisions are made by MIBOR members (REALTORS®, appraisers and affiliates) serving as MPAC Trustees. The trustees volunteer their time to review candidate information, conduct interviews and decide which candidates to support based on nonpartisan criteria.

This information has been provided by MIBOR, the professional association representing central Indiana's REALTORS®. MIBOR serves the needs of nearly 6,500 members in Boone, Brown, Hamilton, Hancock, Hendricks, Johnson, Marion, Montgomery, Morgan and Shelby counties. MIBOR also supplies the BLC® service to REALTORS® in Decatur, Madison and Putnam counties. MIBOR's archive of housing data can be found at www.mibor.com. #powerofR.

###

Reporters' contacts: Claire Belby, MIBOR; (317) 956-5232 office, (317) 523-7145 cell or clairebelby@mibor.com