Project Overview:

Neighbor Power Indy brings residents and community partners from neighborhoods across Indianapolis together to celebrate the diversity and rich history of the city and its neighborhoods. The MIBOR ECDC invested $2,927 for the 12th annual Neighbor Power Indy event. Neighbor Power Indy will be held virtually Tuesday March 1 through Saturday, March 11, 2023. This year's theme is Neighborhoods in Action: The Power of Community Neighbor Power Indy. The event consists of resident- and partner- led workshops, a neighborhood awards ceremony, and an opportunity for neighbors from across the city to connect with one another through in-person meet-up convenings and a final closing event. The event draws neighbors, community leaders, business owners, nonprofits, corporate partners, and elected government officials. In 2023, Neighbor Power Indy will celebrate how neighbors have come together to form new ways of gathering and building community. This year's theme can represent many ideas; neighbors and partners will share how neighbors and organizations worked to create new ways of building community.
